

The Only Sure Investment In Today's Uncertain World

No wonder investors are flocking to the world's oldest, most exclusive and profitable investment event.

For well over four decades — through some of the most turbulent and dangerous times in investing — the record shows there is no better place to find profits and safety than the legendary New Orleans Investment Conference.

But this year's blockbuster event will be one of the most exciting and valuable in the long history of the New Orleans Conference.

Why? Simply put, central banks are trying to tighten monetary policy while economic growth remains fragile and stock markets are teetering near record highs. There's no doubt that the investment landscape will turn completely upside down over the months ahead.

These issues and many more will be answered...with specific recommendations...by dozens of today's top experts in geopolitics, economics and every investment sector, including:

- One of today's hardest-hitting and most entertaining political analysts, Mark Steyn...
- The inspirational author of Rich Dad Poor Dad — the No. 1 selling personal finance book of all time — Robert Kiyosaki...
- Wall Street's most insightful and eloquent market commentator, James Grant...

November 1 – 4, 2018
